

DEBORA ARTA YOSINTAN SINAGA

+62 878-5871-2760 | debora25001@mail.unpad.ac.id

Batam, Kepulauan Riau, Indonesia

A Tropical Marine Fisheries student with an interest in marine science, coastal ecosystems, and sustainable aquatic resource management. Active as a member of the Torgas Lab and has had the opportunity to participate in various laboratory and field activities, such as sampling, sample processing and identification, use of laboratory equipment, and data analysis. Have the opportunity to support research activities and study aspects of microbiology, genetics, and aquatic environments. Active in organizational activities with strong communication, teamwork, and event management skills. Possess a passion for learning, are adaptable, meticulous, and responsible in developing both academic and non-academic skills.

Work Experiences

---

Torgas Laboratory - Jatinangor, Jawa Barat, Indonesia

Aug 2026 - Present

Freelance Assistant Research

Torgas Blue Energy operates an integrated marine research laboratory located in Jatinangor, Sumedang, West Java. We focus on developing autonomous marine monitoring technologies and clean energy solutions based on marine biomass to support the sustainable use of marine resources.

- A student research assistant currently conducting part-time research at Torgas Blue Energy, involving laboratory work and hands-on field sampling.
- Marine Debris- Torgas Laboratory, Bojong Salawe, Pangandaran (Surveyor)
- Pangandaran Discovery Trip (Surveyor)

Education Level

---

Universitas Padjadjaran - Pangandaran, Jawa Barat, Indonesia

Aug 2025 - Aug 2029 (expected)

Bachelor of Tropical Marine Fisheries, 3.33/4.00

- Developing practical skills through both academic and field activities.
- Actively participated in student organizations and committees, developing leadership, teamwork, and time-management skills. An
- active university student with experience serving as a professional MC for various formal campus organization events. Skilled in public speaking and event time management, with the ability to quickly adapt to unexpected situations to ensure events run smoothly.

Organisational Experience

---

Tropical Marine Fisheries Student Association - Pangandaran, Indonesia

Feb 2026 - Present

Staff KPSPDM

Play a role in implementing student development and guidance programs, and support the coordination and evaluation of organizational activities.

PKMBPLT 2026 (Organizational Training for New Students in Tropical Marine Fisheries) - Pangandaran, Indonesia

Feb 2026 -Present

Deputy Head of the Secretariat Division

Supports administrative management, internal coordination, and activity documentation to ensure the program is implemented in a structured manner.

Development Framework for the Faculty of Fisheries and Marine Sciences - Pangandaran, Indonesia

Feb 2026 - Present

Events Division Staff

Play a role in preparing and coordinating the implementation of student development activities and supporting the smooth running of the event series.

Institutional Visit to BRIN & PUSHIDROSAL - Jakarta Utara, Indonesia

Jul 2026

Events Division Staff

Play a role in the planning and execution of institutional visits, including technical coordination of the event and ensuring activities proceed according to the established schedule.

Ciptaloka Arutala - Pangandaran, Indonesia

Dec 2025

Staff of Publication, Design, Documentation Division

---

Managing publications, visual design, and event documentation, and coordinating media requirements to support effective information dissemination.

Skills, Achievements & Other Experience

- Soft Skills: Analytical Thinking , Communication , Teamwork, Leadership, Problem Solving, Time Management
- Hard Skills: Possesses expertise in activity planning and coordination, data and documentation management, visual design, and report preparation, utilizing various digital tools to enhance work effectiveness and professionalism.
- Coastal Cleanup (2026): Participate in cleaning inorganic waste from coastal areas to preserve marine ecosystems by collecting, sorting, and gathering plastic waste to support sustainable recycling.